

Opening the Project of Rabbits and Fodder Delivery for Breeders

In cooperation with Banque Misr Foundation for Community Development and Welfare in addition to Qalyoubia Governorate and the Faculty of Agriculture – Benha University; the Project of Rabbits and Fodder Delivery for Breeders has been opened by Prof. Dr. Adel Zayed, the Governor of Qalyoubia – Prof. Dr. Ali Shams El Din, the President of the University – Mrs. Heba Hussein, from Banque Misr Foundation.

The opening of the Project has been attended by Prof. Dr. Gamal Ismail, the University Vice-president for Community Service and Environment Development – Prof. Dr. Soliman Mustafa, the University Vice-president for Education and Students' Affairs – Prof. Dr. Maher Hassab El Naby, the Dean of the Faculty.

Dr. Mahmoud Iraqi, the professor of Poultry Breeding and the Manager of the Project confirmed that the Faculty seeks to activate the system of improving the animal and agricultural production pointing out that the Project aims to raise the living standards of the Egyptian village.