

London International Youth Science Forum 2013

The Synchrotron-light for Experimental Science and Applications in the Middle East (SESAME) invites the Middle East's leading young scientists, aged 17-21 years old to participate in London International Youth Science Forum 2013 which will be taking place 24th July to 7th August 2013. The Forum will be held under the title of "Crossing Science Boundaries".

You can apply through the General Department of youth Care. Deadline for applying is 16/03/2013.