

Workshop on “Entrepreneurship and the Role of Technology in Community Development”

Prof. Dr. Gamal Ismail, the Vice-president of Benha University for Community Service and Environment Development confirmed the importance of waste recycling and biogas production which used as alternative energy. He also noted that an academic subject under the title of “Entrepreneurship” was proposed and will be presented to the Supreme Council of Universities.

