

Role of the Egyptian Universities in Community Service and Environment Development

In the framework of providing support for the community to face the societal problems; the Supreme Council of Universities held several meetings with presidents of universities, vice-presidents for community service and environment development, and managers of university hospitals.

