

Role of Demographic Policies in Supporting Development

The Demographic Center, the Institute of National Planning invites faculty members, researchers, and who interested from faculties of Benha University to participate in the 41st Annual Conference which will be held under the title of “Role of Demographic Policies in Supporting Development” in the period from 19-20/12/2012.

