The University President warns against the conspiracies which seeks to destabilize Egypt

Prof. Dr. EL-Sayed EL-Kady stresses that the youth are the priority of the state because they are the cornerstone of the country's development. He rejects the idea that there is a gap between youth and the old people. He says that we are united to build our country. The statement concurs with the procedures of the annual conference organized by the faculty of arts in the presence of prof. Dr. Hesham Abu-Enin, the vice president of post-graduate studies and research, prof. Dr. Abeer EL-Rabat, the faculty dean, the university leaders, the faculties' deans, the professors and the students' parents. The university president urges all the Egyptians to stand firm and united to build the country in addition that he says that the university plays a great role in increasing the awareness of the youth to know their duties to build Egypt.
