A Fee to be imposed on Smoking in Benha University Campus

The Deans board in Benha University issued a decision that there will be a ten pound fee to be imposed on smokers in the university campus and this fee will be put in the students treasury. The university president stresses that the deans have to be in the lectures halls and the faculties' campuses to meet the students and listen to their complaints in order to solve their problems. The university president says "we have to make use our resources to develop the university "
