

Tuesday: 15/11/2016

The participants in the «National Big Project» Forum recommends launching a Big Media coverage for the Citizens to know the National Projects and their Importance

The participants in the 'National Big Projects: the challenges and the future visions' Forum, which was held under the auspices of prof.Dr. Ashraf EL-Shihy, the minister of higher education, the general/ Amr Abd- EL-Moniem, Qulubia Governor and the Prof.Dr. EL-Sayed EL-Kady, the university president, recommend that such forums should be held in the Egyptian universities, all ministries and the organizations in addition to having a discussion with the students about the patriotic issues.

The participants also recommend launching big media coverage to let the citizens know the national projects and showing their importance to them, especially the youth. The participants also recommend that the universities should organize trips to the national big projects.