

Thursday: 04/01/2017

A Cooperation Protocol between Benha University and Solara-Cil Academy to train the Youth in the Fields of Renewable Energy and Electricity

The leaders council of Benha University, under the presidency of prof.Dr. El-Sayed EL-Kady, the university president, hands the certificates to the students who passed the training program in the fields of renewable energy and electricity, which was organized by Solara-cil

Academy in the cooperation with the center of geometrical consultations at the faculty of engineering/Shubra. The university president stresses that the university is keen on training the graduates to link education to the labor-market.