

Sunday: 17/12/2017

Newton Mosharafa announces .. Leaders in Innovation Programme 2017/2018

The UK's Scientific Research and Innovation fund in Egypt, Newton Mosharafa Fund, in partnership with the UK's Royal Academy of Engineering (RAEng) and Egypt's Science Technology and Development Fund (STDF), is delighted to announce an opportunity for 15 innovation driven researchers to participate in the «Leaders in Innovation Programme».

Call is now open until 30 December 2017.

The two-week residential programme in London is specifically targeted at researchers keen to gain first hand expertise in developing a business proposition for their innovation.

Training Benefits

- Research commercialisation training will focus on building skills in business modelling, customer development, understanding investment, operations and leadership, presentation, negotiation, and communication skills;
- Expert mentors support participants develop their commercialisation plan for their innovation;

Benha University

News

Sunday: 17/12/2017

- Access to Royal Academy's Enterprise Hub, a network of technology innovators, researcher entrepreneurs, and senior industrialists driving and supporting world class innovation as well as leaders in Innovation fellows.

For a full list of requirements, eligibility criteria and instructions on applying, please see the detailed call documents and guidelines:

<https://www.britishcouncil.org/en/programmes/education/newton-mosharafa-fund>