

Automating the Processes of Dealing with Students

For our students, the General Department of University Cities and the Information Technology Center are studying the possibility of automating the processes of dealing with students which include applications of University Cities, results and notifications.