

Network for Expansion of Convergeng Technologies (UNESCO-NECTAR)

In the frame of UNESCO initiative to create the Arab Network to develop the Convergeng Technologies which include nanotechnology, biotechnology, ICTs, and cognitive science as well as according to the recommendation of the seminar that was held on Monday, 19/11/2012 at Hilton Dream Land; names and CV by English of candidates (3 – 5 members) from each mentioned field in addition to the list of available devices and labs must be sent before Monday16/12/2012.

Benha University News

Benha University News

