

Egyptian Universities CIOs meeting with Microsoft

Microsoft Egypt has arranged for a meeting with the Egyptian Universities CIO's on Monday 10-12-2012 in Cairo Marriott hotel where Microsoft's new technology trends were presented and discussed. Professor Ghazy Assassa, CIO of Benha university, attended the meeting where, in particular, Cloud Computing and Distance Learning were discussed as applied to the education sector. Microsoft Egypt will arrange with Benha university for a workshop to present the new technology to Benha university Staff and students.

Related links

Microsoft DeamSpark

Microsoft Partners in Learning

Benha University News

Benha University News

Benha University News

