

Training Program for MIS Engineers

The training program to improve the efficiency of Management Information System (MIS) engineers has been started on Tuesday 29/01/2013.

The instructor of that training program is Dr. Essam El Sayed, the assistant lecturer at the faculty of Engineering in Shubra and the expert in databases at the Supreme Council of Universities. The training program includes:

- Databases
- Design and Development of Applications by ASP.net
- Web Design Services

Benha University News

Benha University News

Benha University News

